I like Professor Girard's videos immensely & I very much appreciate his communications which are timely and very helpful to me.

For this class, I have two issues: first, I do not like having group members assigned - I prefer to have a say in who is in a group with me because I like to at least try and get with the ones I know actually do their work in a timely and thorough manner. second, neither the text nor any amount of research on project management examples of the submittable items came up with clear guidelines on exactly what information or what format was expected on the case deliverables.

I appreciate and like Dr. Girard's weekly updates to help stay on track with the course material.

Dr. Girard's timely and consistent use of video media in conveying instructions and content requirements have been very helpful. The class is kind of rushed, which is understandable for a 8 week course duration.

The overall course and learning experience was good, although I was hoping this would prepare me for my PMP certificate as well.
