What did your instructor do well in this course?

Very descriptive on topics in the class. Has lots of experience and will help you with any questions you have.
The simple answer is everything. Dr. Girard is a kind, respectful, encouraging, and enthusiastic professor who makes this course far more interesting and relative to our immediate societal environment with stories of real business events. I would recommend Dr. Girard to every student who asked!

What changes would you suggest to make your instructor's teaching more effective?

Comments

For the group project, I would suggest making the students turn in pieces of the project at different weeks to ensure all group mates are doing their part. IE section 1 and 2 must be finished and turned in on week 6, Section 3 and 4 for week 10, section 5 and 6 for week 14 then turn in all work with editing at the regular week 15. The turned in piece are for checks to make sure group mates are doing their part instead of waiting till last minute to disappoint you.

The only thing I would suggest is to add more guidelines for the team project presentation. As it was, there weren't any listed criteria to check off during preparation, so it felt a little like shooting in the dark. Other than that, it was a great class.

No suggestions at all.

Making more examples to put on d2l.

none at this moment

none

nothing

None that I can think of.

None at this time. Great class.

Nothing much.

Nothing really

maybe more group discussions in class.

maybe smaller groups, at times it felt like having 6 people in a group just made it where we had to have too many people working on the same thing so everybody would have work to do

Push group project more in the early semester, provide sections that could be completed with the weekly discussion.

If the instructor makes use of technology in the classroom, is that usage effective?

Comments
Yes but MGA needs to update their old PCs to the new big ones so they will work effectively
Yes. Every class Dr. Girard used the projector and smart board. Also he had teams working assignment on the classroom computers at least once a week.
