John Girard provides students with an expectation for professionalism. He provides an atmosphere where the students feel respected and the students feel like they can accomplish what they set out to do. His course provides students with the concepts that students should receive in the college education system. As a student in his class, I felt like I would be prepared to construct a functional project within my field and if I had any problems along the way, I would be given the tools and responses from Dr. Girard to get the gears turning for myself. As well as feel like I have received the support I need from my mentor to be inspired to continue.

The instructor provided us with the proper tools needed to pass this class.
